

ARTICLE 19: HEALTH AND SAFETY

It is understood that reasonable safety rules of the Employer shall be complied with by all employees. Any employee may receive corrective action up to and including dismissal for failing to perform work in conformance with the Employer's Safety Rules or as required by the State or Federal Orders or other applicable statutes.